Current Chip Remains Undefeated in Maine Sire Stakes Action

Scarborough, Maine (July 15, 2010) - Current Chip remains the current sensation in the State of Maine trotting circles as the 3-year-old state-bred filly, who raced in Thursday's Breeders Stake races at Scarborough Downs, maintains her unblemished record, extending her winning streak to eleven consecutive trips down Victory Lane.

Owned by the tandem of Tom Dillon and Walter Hight and trained by Hall-of-Famer Donald Richards, Current Chip was guided once again by driver Mark Athearn while securing a brand new lifetime mark of 2:03.2.

Stakes action resumes on Saturday, July 17th with the 3-year-old filly pacers, providing the undercard for the marquis pacing event of the season during Scarborough Downs' 60th Anniversary Celebration, the $25,000 Mid-Summer Classic. Post time is 4 pm.
